The Contractor's Choice

Our Accreditations and Compliance

GLA licensed licence number
NWMS0005

It's our job to make your's easier.

We'll make sure you're paid on time,
every time.

But we do more, we're different.
You would expect us to ensure that we comply with the HMRC regulations and we do, plus we check that all your paperwork is
as it should be.

We've been doing it for over 15
years, and have built our business on experience and trust, with many thousands of satisfied contractors.

In over 15 years in the business, we've worked with thousands of contractors across a wide range of industries.

We are responsive, flexible and focused on you.

WHY NWM?

Everybody has different circumstances and different requirements, and our job is to make sure you get what you need, and nothing less.

We listen to our contractors, and have developed our service to suit your requirements. So you'll find we're easy and straightforward to deal with. If you need any help, you can contact your Personal Account Manager.

Our daily margins are very competitive and include Public Liability Insurance (£5m), Professional Indemnity Insurance (£5m) and Personal Accident Insurance.

CONTRACTOR OPTIONS

CIS

Self-employed subcontractors working in the construction industry.

Umbrella

The security and benefits of being employed by NWM, whilst keeping the flexibility of moving from assignment to assignment.

For self-employed subcontractors in the construction industry, NWM CIS increases your contracting opportunities whilst retaining the advantages of being self-employed.

You're still in complete control – choosing the contracts you work on and negotiating your own prices and time scales. When you work on NWM contracts, you can leave all the administrative hassles to us, including making sure you get paid.

And for complete reassurance, while you're working with us, you know you're covered by our comprehensive insurance policies.

> Umbrella

Umbrella offers all the security and benefits of being employed by NWM, whilst keeping the flexibility of moving from assignment to assignment.

The contract covers any number of short-term assignments. Expenses you can claim for work-related costs are paid free of tax and National Insurance, which increases your take-home pay. Expenses can be managed through your online account, making the process flexible and straightforward.

As an employee, you're entitled to paid holiday, so you're not out of pocket when you take a break. You're also covered by our comprehensive insurance policies so you know you have the right level of protection while you're working with us.

Register with us today

Whether you're already contracting or, in fact, looking for a contract, it's in your interest to register with us today.

This will ensure you will be ready to go without delay. Being registered means you can take us with you, on any contract, with any recruiter, at any time.

For expert advice and professional efficiency, give us a call and register today.
